LIBERATION de Paris

"In August 1944, a convoy of US soldiers liberated A small village in Brittany, France. The first jeep stopped to pick up a seven year old boy greatly impacted by the war. The US soldier gave him a piece of gum and chocolate. The boy's eyes lit up and he smiled. From that moment, an eternal gratitude for the United States of America was born. That boy is my father, Joel Bonneté. Libération de Paris is the symbol of the gratitude of Bonneté family, the French people and France have for the USA. These wines come from France's Best known terroirs and are made with caring savoir-faire." -Jean-Francois Bonneté, Co-owner.

Jean-François Bonneté, a French American bi national, grew up in the Bordeaux wine region of France, where he developed a passion for French wines and fine spirits. He then dedicated the next twenty-five years of his life and career to learning and educating professionals and consumers in the United States about this ancestral “savoir faire” of France. They are the owners, with his wife Nathalie, of Château Bonneté (established on the famous Gunz Gravel terrace close to Saint-Emilion).
